For the avoidance of doubt these terms apply whether or not the Contractor is Engaged for the same type of work as that for which the Introduction was originally effected.

2.2. For the avoidance of doubt in the event that the Client fails to sign the relevant Assignment Schedule (including any extension or renewal of the same) within 24 hours preceding the Contractor commencing work for the Client, then the terms of the Assignment Schedule will be deemed to have been accepted and agreed to by the Client who agrees to be legally bound by the same.

2.3. These terms (including the Assignment Schedule) contain the entire agreement between the parties and unless otherwise agreed in writing by a Director of Consol, these terms prevail over any terms of business or purchase conditions put forward by the Client.

- (a) the Remuneration offered;
- (b) the terms of Engagement; and
- (c) anticipated start date for the Contractor.

3.3 Where Consol and the Client have agreed that the Contractor will be engaged on contract or temporary basis then Consol shall provide the Client with an Assignment Schedule confirming the name of the Contractor, the agreed charge rate, term of the Assignment, notice periods and any other relevant details communicated and agreed between the parties.

4.3 The Client shall ensure that it complies with all relevant health and safety legislation and acknowledges that it is solely liable for the provision of a safe place of work.

4.4 The Client undertakes to notify Consol immediately of its, or any member of the Client's group's intention to: (1) engage a Contractor Introduced by Consol; or (2) extend an Assignment or otherwise Engage directly or indirectly a Contractor Introduced or supplied by Consol .

5. ASSIGNMENT SCHEDULE DETAILS

5.1. Prior to the commencement of the Assignment, or if this is not practical, upon commencement of the Assignment, Consol will send to the Client written confirmation of the Assignment specifying the duration of the Assignment, the identity of the Contractor, the hourly or daily rate charged by Consol together with such expenses as may have been agreed, any notice period to terminate the contract, the intervals at which invoices shall be rendered to the Client by Consol and any other relevant information.

6. CHARGES

6.1. The Client agrees to pay the hourly, daily or monthly charges of Consol as notified at the commencement of the Assignment and which may be varied from time to time during the Assignment. The charges are calculated according to the number of hours or days worked by the Contractor (to the nearest quarter hour) and comprise mainly the Contractor's hourly or daily rate but also include Consol's commission and any travel, hotel or other expenses as may have been agreed with the Client or, if there is no such agreement, such expenses as are reasonable. A standard working day is defined as 8 hours per day.

6.2. Value Added Tax (VAT), if applicable, is payable on the entirety of these charges.

6.3. Overtime will be charged at time and half after 8 hours worked per day and double time for weekends and public holidays.

6.4. The charges are invoiced to the Client on a weekly or monthly basis as specified in the Assignment Schedule Details and are payable within 14 days.

6.6. There is no rebate payable in respect of the charges of Consol.

6.7. If the Client is unable to sign a timesheet produced for approval by the Contractor because the Client disputes the amount of time claimed, then the Client shall notify Consol within 2 working days of such refusal to sign the timesheet and shall co-operate fully and in a timely fashion with Consol to enable the Consol to establish the veracity of the time and work claimed.

7. TIMESHEETS

7.1. At the end of each month of the Assignment (or at the end of the Assignment where the Assignment is for a period of less than one month or is completed or finished before the end of a month) the Client shall sign/authorise Consol's time sheet verifying the number of hours or days worked by the Contractor during that period of the Assignment.

7.2. Signature/authorisation of the timesheet (whether in writing, by email or text message) by the Client is confirmation of the number of hours or days worked and constitutes acceptance that the Contractor's services have been provided for the hours or days indicated in accordance with these terms. Failure to sign the time sheet (or the relevant Assignment Schedule) does not affect the Client's obligation to pay the charges set out in these terms in respect of the hours or days worked.

8. PAYING THE CONTRACTOR

8.1 Consol is responsible for paying the Contractor and for deducting any sums as may be required by law.

9. INTRODUCTION FEES

9.2. The Engagement by a Client of a Contractor that has been introduced or supplied by Consol, without the prior written agreement of Consol (either directly or indirectly through a Third Party), or the introduction by the Client of a Contractor to any Third Party resulting in an Engagement renders the Client subject to the payment of a 30% introduction fee calculated by multiplying the hourly, daily or monthly fee on a pro rata basis to provide an annualised charge, provided the engagement takes place within a period of 6 months from the termination of the Assignment under which the Contractor was last supplied, or if there was no Assignment, within 6 months of the introduction of the Contractor by Consol . No refund of the introduction fee will be paid in the event that the engagement subsequently terminates. VAT is payable in addition to any fee due.

10.1. Whilst every effort is made by Consol to give satisfaction to the Client by ensuring reasonable standards of skills, integrity and reliability from Contractors and to provide the same in accordance with the Assignment details provided by the Client, no liability is accepted by Consol for any loss, expense, damage, costs or delay arising from the failure to provide a Contractor for all or part of the period of the Assignment or from the negligence, dishonesty, misconduct or lack of skill of the Contractor or if the Contractor terminates the Assignment for any reason. For the avoidance of doubt, Consol does not exclude liability for death or personal injury arising from its own negligence.

10.2. Contractors provided by Consol to the Client are deemed to be under the supervision of the Client for the duration of the Assignment. The Client will comply in all respects with all relevant statutes, by-laws and legal requirements including provision of adequate Public Liability insurance in respect of the Contractor. The Client shall indemnify Consol against any costs, claims, damages and expenses incurred by Consol as a result of any breach of these terms by the Client.

10.3 The Client shall advise Consol of any special health and safety matters about which Consol is required to inform the Contractor and about any requirements imposed by law or by any professional body, which must be satisfied if the Contractor is to fill the Assignment. Where applicable, the Client will assist the Consol in complying with Consol ' duties under the Working Time Regulations by supplying any relevant information about the Assignment requested by Consol and the Client will not do anything to cause the Consol to be in breach of its obligations under these Regulations. Where the Client requires or may require the services of a Contractor for more than 48 hours in any week, the Client must notify Consol of this requirement before the commencement of that week.

10.4 The Client shall fully indemnify and keep indemnified Consol against any costs, claims or liabilities incurred by Consol arising out of any act or omission of the Client (or its employees, agents, officers or contractors) or arising out of any breach of the applicable law or these terms by the Client.

10.5 The total liability of Consol (including that assumed under any indemnity) under this Agreement (or arising under statute, tort or for any other reason) shall not exceed the total amount paid by the Client to Consol for the relevant Contractor during the one calendar month period preceding such costs, claims or liabilities arising. For the avoidance of doubt this amount does not include any amounts relating to the wages paid to the Contractor.
